

www.savi.org

Citing SAVI

Overview

Citing SAVI in MLA Format

Citing SAVI in APA Format

Example of How to Cite SAVI Reports

Overview

- When using SAVI charts, maps, tables or other data, you must cite SAVI as well as SAVI's source provider. Source provider information can always be found on the About The Data tab.

Citing SAVI in MLA Format

- Maps
 - Format: Author or statement of responsibility. Map Title. [Map]. Data date if known. Scale; Name of person who generated map; Name of software used to generate the map or "Title of the Complete Document or Site". < URL > (date generated).
 - Example: U.S. Census Bureau, American Community Survey. 2014 Total Population – People by Counties. [Map]. 2014. Scale Undetermined; Generated by Dustin Dowell; The SAVI Community Information System, The Polis Center. < <http://www.savi.org>> (February 28, 2017).

Citing SAVI in APA Format

- APA calls for one standard for citing Graphic Data
 - Format: Name of Researching Organization. (year). [brief explanation of what type of data is there and what form it appears]. Project Name. Retrieved from URL
 - Example:
 - Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department. All Crimes: All Part 1 Crimes and Simple Assaults for the Year – per 1000 Population Reported by Indy Neighborhoods, [map].2013. Generated by YOUR NAME HERE; using "SAVI Community Information System". <<http://www.savi.org>> (9 October 2016).

Example of How to Cite SAVI Reports

The SAVI Community Information System, The Polis Center at IUPUI. (2014). LISC Sustainable Communities Initiative Neighborhood Quality Monitoring Report, Near Westside Neighborhood, Indianapolis, IN. Retrieved January 22, 2015, from http://www.savi.org/savi/documents/LISC_FINAL/NWEST_Report2.pdf.

Sources: <http://www.lib.ncsu.edu/maps/citingmaps.html>; <http://owl.english.purdue.edu>